Thanks for your insights. I was tentatively planning to schedule a half-hour break between noon and 12:30, but I will defer to you all and of course to Pete and Doug. Dan - we will get you out in time to catch the 3:15 train.

I can hang around but if we start by 10 people will be worn out by 2 — Also when Grumman was here last week they were all chomping at the bit to catch planes and I think that Lora Fly is going back after the meeting. Jim H

I won't speak for Jim, but I don't want to be any later than the 3:15 train heading back.

Good morning - I have started to prepare an agenda, and although I had originally said that we would be done before 2:00 pm, I was wondering how long you could stay if the meeting went longer than 2:00 pm?
